

flowers & styling

the perfect day

With a team of talented stylists and florists we can manage your styling for your special day. We will work with you to bring your vision to life providing inspiration and guidance. From bouquets, table styling, hanging installations, buttonholes and floral crowns to the styling of food stations and tables we are able to help with every fine detail to create a magical wedding day.

weddings

We turn ideas into reality, hand-picking every element individually to suit our clients brief. If you are looking for someone to bring striking aesthetics to your next event then look no further.

table tops

Our team of stylists at The Fresh Collective create beautifully styled events with creative expression, unique character and attention to detail. Working with budgets and brand guidelines to deliver on point visuals. Let our team work with you to create a brief and make your vision a reality looking after every fine detail.

food stations

Visual feasts

Our team of talented stylists are on hand to personally style food stations to any brief, theme and style. Be it simple and stylish or abundant extravagance, Andrew and his team can design and style your food stations to ensure a stand out event aesthetic.
